

Instant Mystic Astral DNA

Prepared for: Lady_Gaga

March 28, 1986 at 09:53 (GMT -5 hours), 73w59, 40n46

INTRODUCTION

Astral DNA is my unique take on your natal astrological energies, Namely, my thoughts on your Sun, Moon, Ascendant, Midheaven plus the planets by Sign, House and Aspects.

Please enjoy it but remember that is primarily for information and entertainment. The stars do not compel us to do anything we don't want to do and nor can they describe our singular essence.

Still, there is a lot you can glean from a good look at all you sign/house placements at birth and the relationships (aspects) that these energies have to one another.

The advantage of these instant, auto-generated birth charts and interpretations is obvious; speedy astro-info about anyone when you want it. The disadvantage is that in an Instant Mystic reading, the aspects are not integrated. I can't parse the contradiction between -- say -- someone's hard-driving Mars-Saturn and their softer Moon-Neptune energy.

And if you don't like my opinion on a placement or an alignment, well then we'll just have to disagree. But for a fast-blast and pretty exhaustive take on your (or anyone's) astrological energy, Astral DNA does the trick.

FYI: it is written in the third person as I want people to be able to get them for other people as well as for themselves and flipping between "Your Pluto" and "Their Pluto" just slows down the narrative.

Personally I think magic is real. The same force which moves the stars and planets is within us. It's profound and amazing, when you think about it. But we are worldly people living in interesting times and my core intention with Astral DNA is that it's helpful, amusing and inspirational.

Pax Et Lux, xMystic

THE RISING SIGN OR ASCENDANT

Your Ascendant is Gemini

Gemini Ascendant people are fluid of mood, mercurial of mind and fidgety. They are easily freaked out by tedium. Advantages: Gemini Ascendant is the most youthful looking of all, regardless of chronological years. Gemini Rising is also generally on-point with their image. It's the Auto-Cool ascendant. Whether professionally or not, they are influencers. Ruled by Mercury, Gemini Rising people need variety, up to date info and the latest of anything. They're extra sensitised to Mercury Retrogrades. Out-of-touchiness or a long-winded anecdote actually upsets them at the existential level. They cannot conceal boredom. Gemini Rising people are often eloquent gesticulators, story tellers and mimes.

THE MIDHEAVEN OR MC

Your Midheaven is Pisces

An Urban Myth in their own lifetime, the Pisces Midheaven generates a lot of glamor and charisma. Or, notoriety. It's a big feature of actors and those people who achieve an almost spooky degree of cultural relevance in the eyes of the masses. It's also the most slippery Midheaven of all. They can be drawn to under-worldly Neptunian work and taken in by vampiric charms. This is the Midheaven of Lady Gaga, the prototypical metaphysician and virtual 'mother' of the New Age Helena Blavatsky, Cher, Dali and Dylan Thomas. More notoriously, Marie Antoinette, Genghis Kahn and Osama Bin Laden. For long term success, this Midheaven needs a coherent creative or spiritual structure or philosophy.

SIGN POSITIONS OF PLANETS

Sun Aries

The Sun in Aries is Exalted. So the solar, self-actualising energy of Sun-God Apollo expresses brilliantly through Aries. This Sun Sign comes equipped with fierce existential will to not just survive, but thrive. Critics say that Aries lacks nuance or the ability to be introspective. It's true that these traits are not a core competency. But Aries makes up for it with guts and audacity, every damn day. An Aries Sun is pioneering and trail-blazing. Aries is blessed with enough pure ego power to make st happen, go it alone and cop all the "you can't be serious" crap from the non-believers or the complacent. Aries Is As Aries Does.

Moon Scorpio

Moon in Scorpio is a witch in sheep's clothing, adept at magic, highly intuitive and blessed with a brilliant ability to grok where other peeps are at even before they themselves understand it. They have a powerful effect on other people and can sometimes struggle with this, especially before their first Saturn Return, at the age of 28/29. Their energy field is potent and stirs the qi of others to negative or positive ends. Scorpio Moon people provoke strong reactions without even trying. Their sexual appetites are intense yet they are also so attuned and sensitive that they can not casually seek gratification. Complicated much? They can bear grudges and/or nurse a crush for centuries without concern. Their interests and humour are always verging on the macabre; Moon in Scorpio is a natural Goth.

Mercury Pisces

Mercury in Pisces bestows mytho-poetic consciousness. It is the signature of the Shaman, Priestess and Surrealist. Mercury in Pisces sees through the veils. Other dimensions can be as real to this Mercury as the official, earth-bound one. It is the Mercury most in need of a clear, unpolluted-by-drug-or-alcohol thought stream. They are blessed with a supernatural degree of charm, when they care to deploy it, but are just as likely to suddenly space out and astral-slip to avoid a dull conversation. Downside: Focus Issues and deja-vu from past life flashbacks.

Venus Aries

Love Goddess Venus in the realm of Warrior God Mars is a contradiction but a HOT one. Whether they are open about it or not, they're into conquest. Challenges arouse them and their always-on-high-alert pheromones. Turn-Ons: Debating, Sweat inducing exercise, seductions at short notice. Venus in Aries looks rad in red and responds at the base chakra level to primal, tribal type drumming. They can be a bit simplistic -romantic/sexual feelings are either on or they're off. They forgive because they forget. Venus in Aries Allergies: Nuance, Foreplay, Sedentary Dating.

Mars Capricorn

Mars in Capricorn is the Alpha-Mars, the ultimate. Mars in Capricorn is exalted, meaning that Mars functions superbly in this sign. In ancient days the person with Mars in Capricorn would have been recruited to run everything. They can pull off difficult conquests, quell riots and manage complex scenarios. Only Mars in Virgo and Mars in Taurus come close to the pure raw work ethic of this Mars. Mars in Capricorn is a Goal Stalker incarnate, constantly reassessing the game plan and updating to stay relevant. Weak Point: Ruthlessness when in Regeneration Mode. They have the inner guts to endure through anything. People with this Mars are renowned for longevity of career and will often leave behind an iconic legacy that lives beyond their chronological years this lifetime. Prototype Mars in Capricorn peeps include David Bowie, Bjork and Frida Kahlo.

Jupiter Pisces

Jupiter in Pisces is blessed - just like Jupiter in Sagittarius, as Jupiter used to rule Pisces, before Neptune was discovered. There is an auspicious energy about Jupiter in Pisces. The most absurd and surreal situations occur to them and wind up bringing $$$ in the door. They're often brilliant in the healing or psychotherapeutic fields. Jupiter in Pisces needs to feel spiritually galvanised by something before investing time, money or attention.

Saturn Sagittarius

A lowly expressed Saturn in Sagittarius can be a zealot, a religious lecture-ranter or one of those people who are all about the social justice but laissez faire when it comes to their intimate circles. Saturn in Sagittarius thrives via a genuinely open mind and Zen acceptance of others with different beliefs. They are sometimes burdened with being strangely indoctrinated from an early age. The shaking off of intense influences is what makes them. The other enemy of Saturn in Sagittarius? Constant seeking of a new guru, fresh fix or fad. The truth really is within. If this Saturn sign is fencing them selves in, they are intensely annoyed by Sagittarius Sun people or archetypes.

North Node Taurus

North Node in Taurus people are ideally navigating toward a prosperous stability, defying their Scorpio South Node instincts toward sexy chaos. Valuing financial serenity is a spiritual vibe for Taurus North Node people. Karmic Kryptonite: Fanaticism or edge conspiracy theories around money and the economy.

HOUSE POSITIONS OF PLANETS

Sun House XI

Sun in the 11th house people sustain and feed off the Tribe Vibe. They're inspired by the idea of leading or illuminating communities. Ideals are hot-wired into their psyche and they cannot warm up to someone who's not aligned with their vision. Friends and networks are their Everything. Their matrix of contacts and terrain knowledge is often outrageously nuanced. In love, it can seem as if the 11th House person values you so much more once the romance is over and you join their gilded group of friends. Their secret ideal: Living with an entourage. Or in a vision-driven commune. Strength: they're for real about liking people from "all walks of life" -- they are genuinely non-judgemental and utopian. It can also be their weakness. There can be a lack of worldly pragmatism and once smashed up by 'the system', the 11th House Sun person turns rogue and embittered.

Moon House V

Lady Gaga, Britney Spears, Ru Paul, Diego Maradona, Bernard-Henri Levy, Andrea Bocelli, Picasso, Kendrick Lamar, Kristen Stewart: the list of Moon in the Fifth House people reads like nominations for a surreal awards ceremony. It is a Performance Moon. Those born with the Moon in the Fifth House have a psyche-driven desire to develop and show off a talent. The same ego that fuels their success can also make them erratic. It is a restless Moon and can burn out the psychic synapses of the person with it, even as they shine ever more bright and charismatic. Validation is like oxygen to them. If they don't get to realize their creativity, they can make the craziest stage parents.

Mercury House X

Mercury in the Tenth House people are acutely attuned to power, hierarchy and their own vocational desires. They're pragmatic, brilliant at building their own brand or reputation and highly adaptive. It is a mature-vibe Mercury. Regardless of their chronological age, the transmission is they they're got their shit-together, are grounded and have paid or will pay their dues. They care about status and the way in which they're perceived. Secret Talismanic Gift Object: Beautiful stationery and/or high-end tech upon which to record their superior thoughts. They like to status-signal.

Venus House XI

The Host/Hostess archetype expressed to its fullest potential, Venus here likes community engagement and interaction with society at large. One on ones can cramp their style. This Venus is skilled at developing a tribe vibe and will often be the center of a scene. Friendship is far more important to them than the potential isolation of couple-hood. They have a hive mentality and would be thrilled to have an entourage of some sort.

Mars House VII

These people are pro-confrontational. They're good at conflict resolution and can even be skilled diplomats but confrontation itself does not bother them. It can even energise them. A tonne of politicians and leaders have this placement. It's optimal for a person who will, by dint of their work, have to face a constant barrage of criticism and carping? Mars in the Seventh house is also a brilliant tactician and planner. But without a big arena for their energies, this Mars can turn a bit bats. If a relationship is their only 'playing field', the Mars goes rogue.

Jupiter House X

Regardless of their age, the Jupiter in the Tenth House person is always a contender. It is the Jupiter most likely to defy time as a point of principle. They blend vital life force and a mad desire for security with pure, raw hoof grip on even the most sheer of rock faces. This is the Jupiter placement most likely to rise from adversity to triumph. They tend to have the love of the public or a fantastic reputation, no matter what they do. Every Jupiter in the Tenth House person has a touch of the vaudevillian. They are show-people and success addicts.

Saturn House VI

Saturn in the 6th house people need their system. Their mind-body-matrix is exquisitely sensitive. These industrious souls can shut right down if blasted with unjust criticism or if they are compelled to do something they are against. Their emotions reflect in their body at warp speed. Control of their food and environment is not intended to be a manipulative maneuver, it's a self-protective mechanism. Saturn here can sometimes experience unusual ailments early in life and this scenario forces them into a higher consciousness of health or their own physicality than they would otherwise have.

Uranus House VI

Uranus in the Sixth House people need to run their own work schedule and align it to their unique nutrition and fitness concepts. They're avid for the breaking health trend, vitamin discovery or workout technique. If not an exercise geek, they're big on plants, animals and being the change they want to see in the world. Low-Vibing Uranus in the 6th house is the crazy colleague or the person acting way weird at the gym. If working in a super-normal environment, they can be a bit "Eleanor Oliphant."

Neptune House VII

Neptune here automatically puts people at high risk of being Love Zombies. Their relationship ideals are so high, they're on another planet someplace. The only way to realize them can be to layer on a hefty dose of fantasy and avoid actual dating or mating. Or to actually hook up with someone super-elusive or whose priority is drugs, God, music or something mystical. Optimally, they set up some basic precautions against Lower Neptunian people (addicts, vampires, grifters) and refuse to project their inner beauty onto others OR try to have a religious experience via an earthly relationship.

Pluto House V

Pluto in the 5th House people are fanatical about art, style, fashion, music, culture and the theatre of dating. They're glamorous, passionate people who cannot see the point of living at any volume below loud. Every choice they make -- from the style of cutlery to the name they call their child has layers of significance and symbolism behind it. Source Vibe powers their creativity and whatever they do, their manifesting powers are extraordinary. They consciously create themselves and the lucre they need to fund the lavish style of life that they aspire to. Pluto 5th housers include Donatella Versace, Miuccia Prada, Adele, Lady Gaga, Johnny Cash, Hunter S Thompson, Christine Lagarde, Barbara Streisand, Dr Dre, Billie Holiday and Michael Phelps.

North Node House XI

North Node in the 11th house people are fantastic at politics and community or tribe vibe. They're idealists who can actually generate traction for powerful social reforms. They lose momentum the moment they try to be too 'fabulous' or put style over substance.

PLANETARY ASPECTS

Sun square Mars

Let's not fuq about with this. Sun-Mars Square people can kick themselves where it hurts. It's the classic "own goal" scenario where the natural drive Mars Vibe works at odds with the self-actualisation process. Of course it can be turned into a major asset. Nobody keeps Sun-Mars Square People down. Often they get their combat skills from early scenarios in life that demanded a degree of strength never evoked in many. If they are defensive, it is because they had to defend themselves. The correct channelling of anger/lust/ambition is vital or else it undermines their self-expression and personal identity. A sad and rather dark example of Sun-Square-Mars is the South African athlete Oscar Pistorius. Nicer? Domestic violence/abusive relationship survivor and thrivalist diva Tina Turner. She was doing fierce brave charisma in the face of adversity and publicizing contentious issues long before it went mainstream. UFC Champion Amanda Nunes has this!

Sun trine Saturn

The Sun-Trine-Saturn character is blessed with brilliant timing and the ability to scale life within their means. Unless this influence is counteracted by some drastic Jupiter action, they're composed and super-together at the worldly level. They're good at attracting mentors and taking decent advice. They're good at smoothly integrating Saturnine energy with their identity and desire to shine. Side-Hustle: they're fantastic at rising through hierarchies and scoring funds from big companies.

Sun square Neptune

Sun-square-Neptune people need super-strength barriers around Neptunian substances and past-times that only antidote their magic. Delusional Economics, Rescue Romances, Love Zombie Crushes, Drugs & Alcohol are all dangerous to these characters. They're high off their own charisma, a direct connection to Source Vibe and often a crazy, amazing talent. They're also super-charged bait for vampires disguised as visionary hotties. It's Lady Gaga, Ella Fitzgerald and Carl Jung levels of artistic high/society altering genius AND it's River Phoenix, Whitney Houston, Gia Carangi - the Sun heat turned into a dark dead star by drug abuse. Sometimes huge talent exists alongside an element of delusion with this lot. Ross Ulbricht - the A Grade student and Eagle Scout student turned criminal mastermind creator of the Dark Web site Silk Road (a kind of E-Bay for criminals) - is a Sun-Neptune square guy. He says he's a libertarian. So was Kurt Vonnegut: "We are whoever we pretend to be."

Moon trine Mercury

These characters have enormous capacity to express their emotions and eloquently discuss difficult subjects. A particular specialty? Putting feelings into a pertinent philosophical or literary context. It's big in song-writers and poets but also the most successful of con-artistes.

Moon trine Jupiter

Moon Trine Jupiter people are egalitarian, kind and often innately good. Their instincts around business and commerce are uncanny, confounding people who behave more sharkily. Their Kryptonite: getting emotionally stuck in the music or sensibility of an era long-gone. They're sentimental. They can be ultra-magic but have absolutely no idea.

Moon conjunction Pluto

It's always midnight in the garden of Moon-Pluto. The Moon-Pluto conjunction occurs once a month, a particularly potent Lunar Portal that inspires depth dialogue and candid reveals. People who are born with it are breathtakingly brave with their emotions and willingness to unflinchingly face complex scenarios. They are often drawn to work where they support others through extreme circumstances and major life transitions. Their every feeling or intimacy is super-charged with Pluto Vibe. They're comfortable at a much higher level of intensity than most people. Of course, not everything that blooms in this garden of theirs is desirable. They need to learn early how to weed out obsessions and vengeful emotions.

Moon trine Midheaven

Superior Emotional Intelligence applied to work and business realms is the gift of Moon-Trine-Midheaven. They're fantastically intuitive managers of time, money, people, details and energy. Unique Gift Alert: They are easily able to perceive the connection between micro tasks and the bigger macro picture of their job or business.

Mercury square Uranus

Like any Mercury-Uranus alignment, Mercury-Square-Uranus holds the promise of unconventional ingenuity. It's just that they can find it harder to integrate the Uranian genius when the two planets are at odds like this. They can find it difficult to trust their wilder perceptions or unique ideas and even attempt to distance themselves from them by insisting on rigorous protocol and establishment values. They need something officially 'weird' to be working on or thinking about. Otherwise their personal magic backs up and lightbulbs blow around them. The writer Yuval Noah Harari has this aspect, as does Bjork.

Mercury trine Midheaven

Mercury-Trine-Midheaven people are operators. They're good at managing upwards, getting their message out, promoting themselves or a cause and deploying their eloquence to stay relevant in business. They're cash-canny and agile in any economic circumstances. Don't get between them and a tasty morsel of industry or career gossip.

Venus trine Mars

They're sexually magnetic and usually the sorts of people who always seem to have something intriguing going on. Whether they're serial monogamists, suburban bible belt secret swingers, pair-bonded to someone they view as their soulmate or married to their work/art, they give off a low-frequency sensual hum. Their attitude to mating and dating is usually cheerfully pragmatic, because they don't find unnecessary drama or turgid dialogue to be amusing.

Venus trine Uranus

Venus-Trine-Uranus energy works brilliantly in an enlightened relationship or for a super-functional singlehood. But in any kind of limited or repressive mating/dating paradigm, they are out the door fast. They're genuinely independent people who have an innate aversion to any form of rigid relationship construct. They're brilliant at forming unique relationships and friendships fast. Venus-Uranus people are not normally super-sex-motivated: they're all about high-order cognitive chemistry. They either connect with you at Warp Speed or they find you energetically irrelevant.

Venus conjunction North Node

Venus-North-Node people have fantastic style, art, travel and love instincts. The people, places and aesthetic that they are drawn to is tied into their optimal destination. They've got a high synchronicity factor going on in their everyday life, meeting people who know people and so forth. In classical astrology, this aspect portended the cliched 'good catch.' Or they're one of those people who get 'discovered'. They're natural-born influencers.

Venus square Midheaven

Venus-Square-Midheaven people can find that their relationships lead them away from their optimal vocation or vice versa. But it need not be that love conflicts with their professional life. It could be that they have an innate aversion to playing the role required of them by a career, that it does not feel 'them'. Or, even that the personal life becomes inspiration for a stellar career. Taylor Swift, Rihanna and Beyonce all have Venus --Square-Midheaven. See also Shirley Manson, Debbie Harry, LeAnn Rimes, Cher and Grace Jones. For an officially challenging 'square' aspect, Venus-Square-Midheaven seems almost like a prerequisite to success in music at least. Possibility: That it affords the person a useful objectivity about their public image. Optimally, their partner is either their agent, co-biz owner or simply super-supportive of the Venus-Midheaven's person Goal-Stalking.

Mars conjunction Uranus

Mars conjunct Uranus is the astral signature of the activist. Black Panther leader Angela Davis and Alice Walker (The Colour Purple) are both Mars-Uranus. If not an actual activist, their very style of life is revolutionary. Mars-Uranus does not choose to be a non-conformist as some sort of a stance. They're just ahead of other people or society and they've got the audacity to craft a life their way. They're liberators. See also Rihanna, Trent Reznor, Frida Kahlo, Maria Montessori, Wim Wenders, Steve Martin, Agnes Varda, Lykke Li and the woman who wrote the fantastic Mansplaining essay, Rebecca Solnit.

Mars conjunction Neptune

When the Warrior God aligns with Shamanic Neptune, the result is visionary people with a spooky, other-worldly charm and talent. It is the signature aspect of Ryan Gosling, Sarah Paulson, Grimes and the poet Dorianne Laux. Mars drives Neptune hard so if the Neptune is set to receive haute concepts and conjure up unique vistas, these people pull off magic-seeming stunts on a regular basis. If drugs or other compulsions get a grip on them, the Mars drives that. William Blake had this: "The path of excess leads to the palace of wisdom."

Mars trine North Node

Mars-Trine-North-Node have fantastic instincts around where to put their energy. It's not so much that they run complex analytics or rely on cultural commenters for their info. They energetically sense when a phase, society, trend or attitude is generating and when the vibe is dying. Secret Scary Super-Power: Picking up on the energy of relationships -- not so much nuance but strength-weakness, heat-frigidity, loyalty-treachery.

Mars opposition Ascendant

These people are classically combative, projecting their internal conflict onto every person they meet or encountering it in their relationships. You'd just avoid them and their debating-champion relating mode but they're also hot. Superfly Mars Vibe pulses through their endocrine system, like a hormones system as yet unmapped by scientists. They usually like arguing about politics, culture, the local council, science, whatever. The High Vibe Mars-Opposition-Ascendant people are great if they've got an outlet -- defense barrister, activist, big-deal management, athlete -- and they can adore relationships where they get to work with you on something. If they don't like heated discussion and would prefer you to just shut up and listen to them lecture-rant, evacuate.

Jupiter square Saturn

Jupiter-Square-Saturn people can ricochet between insanely lower Saturn, mean and carping, self-limiting and a misery to be around and over-the-top garish Jupiter, a gambler, reckless with other peoples emotions, money, time. Ideally, they create some 'set and forget' rules to honour their Saturn - healthy boundaries, a sane $$$ practice- and then the ebullient Jupiter energy thrives with appropriate 'fencing.'

Jupiter trine Pluto

They would probably not put it like this but on some level, the Jupiter-Trine-Pluto person feels religious about their hustle. Every damn day they're up and at it, generating lucre, counting their pentacles and feeling -- somehow -- guided. When they get money -- and they usually do acquire decent amounts of it, they're generous and not in a naïve way. Their prosperity beliefs demand that they give back. They often have surprising charities or secret histories with money.

Uranus trine North Node

Uranus Vibe channeled through an easy, smooth-flowing 'trine' alignment to the North Node Beacon of the Future works really well. These people 'get away' with liberation stunts that others don't. They learn early how to rewire scenarios to suit themselves and they're often fervent advocates for freedom in other people and creatures. Their contempt for outdated paradigms or laws is tangible: it's like you can see their hair on end when they're encountering saurian values.

Uranus opposition Ascendant

Old-fashioned astrology books are hilarious on this aspect. They say these people are bolters, runaway brides, jilting grooms, bigamists and people who run off to join a religious order just to get out of wedded bliss. In the 21st Century, Uranus-Ascendant Opposition people are seen simply as people who want to invent their own unique style of relationship or no-relationship. Their dilemma is that they often desire an attachment and complete freedom. They definitely cannot tune their frequency to receive a dying-era wavelength.

Neptune trine North Node

In love and vocation, they are often obeying a calling. If they keep their consciousness-clear of mind-altering substances, these people are tapped straight into Source Vibe and able to make brilliant decisions off their instincts. Etherically, they're super-sensitive. Hence the "no mind altering substance" dictate. They're also able to recall other times, sometimes via a scent, breeze or moment of DÃ©jÃ vu.

Pluto opposition North Node

This aspect means that Pluto is actually conjunct the South Node, as they are always opposite. The good news is that Pluto-South-Node people are able to draw on a rich reservoir of past life acumen and experience. They really are that connected. However they may appear -- Zen, cool, whatever -- they're ancient souls with a primordial wisdom. They're born worldly and they're good with power. Their challenge: To not get stuck in the sign/house themes of their Pluto/South Node just because they have such a strong pull on them.

Created by:

Mystic Medusa

Copyright 2018 by Mystic Medusa. All rights reserved.

